

Business Technology Manager

South Central Indiana REMC, an electric distribution cooperative serving south central Indiana and headquartered in Martinsville, Indiana, is seeking a Business Technology Manager. This position will report to the VP of Corporate Services. The position requires a Bachelor of Science degree in computer science, information science, management information systems, or a closely related field. In addition, a minimum of 5 years work experience as a business technology manager or a related position is required. The individual must have the demonstrated ability to plan and maintain an organization's computer network and to supervise personnel.

SCI REMC offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. Potentially-qualified individuals must send a cover letter and resume to VP of Human Resources, South Central Indiana REMC, 300 Morton Avenue, Martinsville, IN 46151, or e-mail to normal@sciremc.com by no later than February 15, 2012. EEOE.